Antony Gormley sculpture

The sculpture of a man that is situated at the end of the old pier is by British artist, Sir Antony Gormley, OBE. You can see the sculpture from the entrance to the Tearoom.

The work is part of a project by Gormley and the National Galleries of Scotland whose enigmatic work draws attention to the significant natural environment of the Water of Leith. Sir Antony Gormley won the Turner Prize in 1994 and, in 1997, created the Angel of the North.
